MANUAL BANK TRANSFERS

The security of your data is extremely important to us. Unfortunately, the Internet is not 100% secure.

We are aware that there are various payment providers. However, your data will be requested by each one of them and payment providers will additionally charge you a fee. This way you keep control of your bank details. The safest way is manual bank transfer. You can transfer the amount to the following bank account. You will receive a confirmation and your tax return will be sent electronically to your tax office.
