

TAXKIWI.com
Electronic & Digital Tax Return

SECURITY STATEMENT

Taxkiwi.com uses the technology provided by the tax offices in Germany, which is ELSTER an interface of the tax authorities for the transfer of your tax return. So you can be sure that your tax return arrives at the tax office. External tax consultants and tax experts have checked the contents and the technical processes of Taxkiwi.com. They are correct under tax law.

Your data will be transmitted encrypted to the Taxkiwi servers or to the tax office. Encryption technologies are used, which are also used by banks for their online services. Your data will only be transferred to the tax office if you expressly allow us to do so.

If you ever need help, you can contact our support team by e-mail. You can reach them at support@Taxkiwi.com. Please note, however, that we cannot offer you any tax assistance or tax advice. The support team will be happy to help you with technical questions.
